THE ARGUS.

nue, Rock Island, Ill. (Entered at the be equal to $48,714,708. postoffice as second-class matter.)

Press.

BY THE J. W. POTTER CO.

Complaints of delivery service should be made to the circulation department. instance where it is desired to have and it is now ready for distribution. which should also be notified in every paper discontinued, as carriers have no authority in the premises. have real name attached for publication. No such articles will be printed over fictitious signatures.

2145.

Saturday, August 1, 1914,

The Blue Danube waltz may become the Red Danube march before many days.

his temple of peace.

fly" to "rap the rat."

tween Vienna and Washington.

lords and the irregular highwaymen.

A goodly portion of the European America in the piping times of peace.

If Spain gets into the European war

Carranga is not going to inaugurate cent of the total. his personal administration with a terror has ceased.

Cablegrams state that mobs clamor brave that die in battles. That is one of the best reasons why war is infer-

People who have been contending that we are an imperial power and have outgrown the early doctrine of no entangling foreign alliances, might have had a heap of explaining to do had we taken their advice and become the ally of some European power.

Uncle Joe Cannon in his address tion to congress, said that the country had grown since his first election from 38,000,000 to 100,000,000. While party did it.

TALKING IN DOLLARS.

From a wholly sordid, mercenary standpoint, America might not object to a war sweeping the continent of Europe. We would feed, clothe and arm them and if they fought long enough get all their money. In any event we would get back about all that has been pried away from us by titled bankrupts marrying our heiresses and toward thrift. the vastly greater sum that our own malefactors of great wealth have been scattering about abroad for many

NO SPURNING NOW.

The opposition in congress claims ed President Wilson's proposition for neutralization of the Philippines with wiew to eventual selfgovernment. Possibly the president asked too early. Just at present neither Germany nor France would be apt to do any spurning of a favor asked by the United States. All hands in Europe are in the position of Mr. Briggs' little boy in the cartoon 'When a Feller Needa a Friend," says the Bloomington Bul-argument. There is no real depression in Pennsylvania, except such as the desired impression. results from a sympathetic relationship with the railroads. The entire fron and steel industry, industries fur-nishing equipment purchasing business and mining, all are affected by the rail road situation."-Congressman A. R. Rupley, of Pennsylvania (Progres-

WHOLE TRUTH.

THE TARIFF AND SUGAR.

tariff, consumption of sugar in the states of the east alone has increased practically 20 per cent. To be exact, the consumption of sugar from March 1 to June 19 in the territory above mentioned was $23,000 tons in 1914, consumer by taking the duty off of and write, sugar is .581 cents per pound, which, figured on the amount of sugar consumed in the United States last year, Published daily at 1624 Second ave. namely, 8,384,631,360 pounds, would ment of commerce. The bulletin gives character, political or religious, must 523. Of this total, $403,366,569 reprerepresented floating debt. Of the profits. funded debt $364,836,427 are repretral Union, Rock Island 145, 1145 and special debt obligations to public trust self-interest is attempting to shake off advancing, quite as frequently recedfunds.

to only $1.028,564,055, or a per capita pations. debt of $10.59.

The net debt of the national govern armies seem to make their living in ment represents three times the total net debt of the state governments. Of the total per capita debt of $14.15 (national and state), the debt of the nait will show that its memory is short tional government is $10.58, or 75 per or that it can not learn by experience. | cent, while the debt of the state governments amounts to $3.57, or 25 per

The debt of the national government baptism of blood. It is evident that was higher in 1870 than at any time that year being $60.46. This amount, though large, was a material decrease over the debt as it stood Aug. 31, 1865 for war in European capitals. It is the On that date the indebtedness of the unthinking and jingoes who clamor national government (less funds avail- first nine months of its operation the government had decreased so that, to. as the McKinley and Wilson laws. The own 13,372, or 37 per cent. gether with the rapid increase in the population, the per capita debt had been reduced to only $38.27. Ten years later (1890) it had been reduced to $13.69, at which point it remained with only comparatively slight fluctuations, increasing somewhat the Spanish-American war and decreasing somewhat since that date, until, at the latest date reported not personally assuming all the credit, (1913), the indebtedness of the nationhe did not deny that the republican al government amounts to only $10.59 per capita, an amount slightly higher than in 1907, when the per capita indebtedness was $10.05, the largest recorded.

TALKS ON THRIFT.

BY T. D. MAC GREGOR.

The moving picture theatre is to be used in an agency in direct thought tion to offset extravagance and incu. tion and recognized that the germs late the more sensible ideas of thrift, came over from Europe in ships, packa two-reel moving picture film, the sectors. story for which was written under the that Germany and France have spurn- direction of the association. This will be released to the public Sept. 15. graph Company of America. It cost several thousand dollars to create. The play portrays the fortunes of a thrifty structural iron worker and his wife and little daughter, and how thrift during prosperity tides over adversity, There is a "bad man," too, who is finally converted to thrift by the hero, despite the fact this man once attempted the hero's life.

Actual scenes of work on a steel framed skyscraper and in caissons un-"Anyone who seeks now to make der compressed air are shown, as well individuals, not through the air, but political capital out of business de- as actual scenes in the school savings through personal contact. You may legs at night, also what will cure it. I pression in Pennsylvania, is playing bank, the real savings bank, where a kill germs on the floor, on the wood sent this inquiry ten days ago, but with a dangerous toy. I think in a forger is arrested by means of the work, or even in the air-if we had have as yet seen no answer in the few months there will be a dangerous finger print method of identification, any good evidence that the germs paper. flareback for those gentlemen who are and the building and loan association, were present there at all—but you working the depression as a political all presented in a dramatic setting can't disinfect the patient without which grips the attention and leaves endangering his life. So why waste notice that accompanies each day's

Do not fail to see "The Reward of Thrift" when it is presented in any motion picture theatre in your neigh- in and the patient is ready to leave family physician. borhood. It will interest you and ben- his room, the non-medical health init you immensely. rising generation needs in these times, the use of that if the patient still Cabinet Decides to Support Bill for Universal Education.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 1.—The Rus. usually does not-you can't fumisian cabinet yesterday decided to put gate the convalescent carrier. as compared with 748,000 tons in 1913. before parliament a bill introducing a carrier of disease germs is still a Thus the increase in consumption of system of universal education. Edu-very serious problem. The problem sugar in those states has been 145,000 cation in Russia is imperfectly devel- of preventing the spread of disease tartar accumulating about the root, tons. This is one of the results of oped. On an average out of every 1. from known cases is simple. Avoid and some injury, might be the cause. democratic rule. The saving to the 000 of the population only 211 can read contact with the patient, keep all his The dentist's advice should be fol- speaker of the senate and the governor

BUSINESS AND SCHOOLS

indebtedness and funds and invest- and disquieting, according to Owen the right kind of curriculum and gave TERMS-Ten cents per week by car- issued by Director William J Harris Guidance and Child Labor" in a publi- would have his natural capacity de-

"The employers have a very definite fits. information for the United States as a program," says Mr. Lovejoy. "They state governments, the national gov- ciency, and consequent helplessness. cy and responsibility. ernment had a total debt on June 30. But while employers are awake to 523,329, while the floating debt amount- cient, the immature, the unprepared.

Damage of $5,000 to Woodland of Har

That the present movement for prac- had the right kind of schools all this tical education is stimulated from the would be changed; that chiq labor Rock Island Member of the Associated STATE AND NATIONAL DEBT. industrial rather than from the educa-The full report on national and state tion side is a fact both promising stantly told that if the schools had ments from 1870 to 1913 has just been R. Lovejoy, who discusses "Vocational the right kind of training, every child rier, in Rock Island; $3 per year by mail of the bureau of the census, departing an end to the army of industrial miss.

"In accepting this challenge of the whole and for each state separately, know what they want and are going business world our educators have asafter it. Let us not delude ourselves sumed unwarranted responsibility for According to this bulletin, the total by thinking they are actuated by phi- the condition that exists. A study of debt of the 48 state governments on lanthropy. It is simply good business, the annual contribution of our city June 30, 1913, amounted to $422,796. They want a crop of fresh, young la- schools to the business interests of sented funded debt, and $19,429,956 can make a fewer mistakes and more siderable percentage is thrown into the discard within the first month; "This is extremely gratifying, in one that another large percentage goes sented in bonds and $38,530,142 are sense. It indicates that economic drifting from job to job, sometimes the double burden society has long ing, the industries complaining that As an offsetting item against this borne—the burden of using goods the children the schools turn out are total debt, the 48 states reported $76.-950,571 in sinking fund assets, leaving cause poorly and inefficiently made, courage, enthusiasm, and youthful and of supporting by charity those idealism in the various meaningless their debt (less sinking fund assets), paid less than their work is worth jobs to which they are assigned. That $345,942,305. The per capita debt for because of their poverty, inefficiency, many drift into casual and thence because of their poverty, inefficiency, the per capital debt for because of their poverty, inefficiency, and the per capital debt for because of their poverty, inefficiency, the per capital debt for because of their poverty, inefficiency, and the per capital debt for because of their poverty, inefficiency, and the per capital debt for because of their poverty, inefficiency, and the per capital debt for because of their poverty, inefficiency, and the per capital debt for because of their poverty, inefficiency, and the per capital debt for because of their poverty, inefficiency, and the per capital debt for because of their poverty, inefficiency, and the per capital debt for because of their poverty, inefficiency, and the per capital debt for because of their poverty, inefficiency, and the per capital debt for because of their poverty inefficiency. the 48 states amounted to $3.57 June made, and of supporting by charity into permanent idleness is to be exthose paid less than their work is pected. The only wonder is that any In contrast with the debt of the 48 worth because of their poverty, eneffi- ultimately rise to positions of efficien-

"Our schools are not fair to them-1913, of $2,916,204,914. Of this total, the need of efficiency, industry is not. selves in assuming that they or the the funded debt amounted to $2,540, Industry still beckons to the ineffi-child are wholly at fault. If the schools need a better curriculum, so does the No one has yet found out what ed to $375,681,585. Of the funded debt, "Society is far from having reach-industrial establishment. If the child use Andrew Carnegie is making of the bonded indebtedness amounted to ed a decision that unskilled labor must needs a more definite and purposeful $967,366,160, while the special debt ob- be abolished. The occupations which, mind much more so does industry. One ligations amounted to $1,573,157,169 outside of agriculture, absorb the out- of the most vital services vocational In New Orleans the popular slogan The sinking fund assets, or cash in the put of our schools are barren of any industries and train our youth to dis It's easy to be truthful when it doesn't has been changed from "swat the United States treasury avaiable for the element to make them of present in- tinguish between a vocation and a job. payment of debt, consisting of accum- terest to the child or to offer any hope It is futile to give special training ulated trust funds, gold and silver and for the future. A vocational survey to a child for the purpose of fasten-The difference between haste and general treasury cash, not only were in New York city exhibits in one ing him to a machine on which he watchful waiting is the difference be- sufficient to eliminate entirely the spe- group 101 boys between 14 and 16 shall do purely mechanical labor for cial debt obligations, but also to re- years of age with an analysis of the life. Business says: 'Here are the duce the bonded debt. The national work they are doing. For only 5 of them jobs; what kind of children have you The tourist in Yellowstone park is debt, less cash in the treasury availal is there any opportunity to advance to offer? We must reverse the inhaving a hard time between the land- ble for the payment of debt, amounted or improve; 96 are in dead-end occu- quiry and say to business: 'Here are our children, what kind of industry It's easy to strut proudly when you have, "Business is now saying that if we have you to offer?"

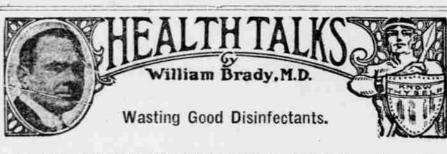

FOREST FIRE AT JOLIET Underwood tariff is producing an aver-low N. Higinbotham. Joliet, Ill., Aug. 1 .- Fire did $5,000 damage to the Forest of Arden, Har- $3,243,566,840 foreign commerce durlow N. Higinbotham's 80 acres of ing the first nine months of the Unchoice trees, and for a time endangered campers on the tract. The forwith Huerta's departure the reign of since that date; the per capita debt limits, and volunteers joined in extinest is a short distance from the city guishing the flames.

> Tariff Law in Operation. Washington, Aug. 1.-During the age of $23,000,000 a month; the Payne tariff produced an average of $26,750-000, the Wilson tariff $14,000,000 and the McKinley tariff $14,500,000. Of the derwood tariff imports aggregated $1, 446,127,491. Exports totaled $1,797. 439,349, being 7.8 per cent less than the same period of the previous year. The decrease was chiefly in foodstuffs due to the shortage in the domestic supply.

Not only does Ontario manufacture for blood, but it is the young and able for the payment of debt) amount Underwood tariff law, according to almost all the automobiles made in ed to $2,766,431,571, an average of the department of commerce figures Canada, but it ranks far ahead of any $79.44 for every inhabitant of the coun- announced today, yielded somewhat other province in the number of motry. The rate of decrease between less revenue than the Payne law, tor cars in use. Of the total of 46,604 1865 and 1870 was continued until in slightly more than the Dingley law automobiles officially registered in the 1880 the indebtedness of the national and one and a half times as much Dominion in 1913, residents of Ontario principal thing is to make a good pa-

enza in America was attributed to in- bit extravagant in the use of soap, fection borne on the winds. There water and elbow-grease. These prewere then health authorities who ac- cautions apply in every case, whether tually imagined the disease had trav- it be diphtheria, influenza or just a eled across the ocean on the winds. common "cold." People somehow get the idea that the disease lurked in the highways and byways, in ash heaps and unswept streets tributing the germs wherever he went. After a time health authorities saw the As part of its campaign of educa- absurdity of the idea of air-born infecthe savings bank section of the Amer- ed away out of sight in people's noses

Influenza, therefore, or "grip," as sive. we sometimes call it when we are not sure whether it is or isn't, is a The film is called "The Reward of germ disease spread through the ter than lemons. Thrift," and is a product of the Vita, agency of human carriers. That being so, it matters not the least whether the street sweepers go on tape sanitary and healing when apstrike or the ashmen forget to call.

Can't Disinfect the Patient. A dish of disinfectant solution placed on a shelf or under the bath. insects or lice? tub or in the bedroom is simply The wet antiseptic sheet wasted. hung in the sick-room or over the it, but it protects the wound from dirt, door of the sick-room is a foolish and holds separated edges in contact. waste of energy. The patient is the source of infection; from the patient the germs are transferred to other your disinfectants?

You Can't Fumigate the Carrier. spector comes around, pronounces you are a parent, take your son danger all over, removes the placard t lesson which is just what the a good pretense of doing so. What's at night? harbors germs in his nose or throat Under the stimulus of the reduced MORE SCHOOLS FOR RUSSIA or running ear or gall-bladder? No er. use at all. Even admitting that the should be left off from a baby three rite of fumigation does destroy all months old. disease germs in a room-which it

> The problem of controlling the though apparently sound? personal and toilet articles separate lowed.

The first great epidemic of influ- from the household supply, and be a

Questions and Answers. W. N. B. asks: Would a mixture of lodine and nitro-muriatic acid be a culprit who was traveling about diswith consumption?

Reply.

. . .

Mrs. M. M. W. asks: Are lemons better than other fresh fruits for the ican Bankers' association has adopted and throats-to get past customs in- liver? Living in the country we have lots of fruit, but lemons are expen-

Any fresh fruit is as good, if not bet-

G. L. B. S. inquires: Is adhesive plied to cuts or bruises that are open? Is it injurious to health to eat lettuce that is encumbered with small green

(1) There is nothing healing about

(2) We wouldn't eat such lettuce.

R. E. C. B. writes: Please tell me the cause of cramps that come in my Reply.

Before you write again, read the Health Talk. It says there that I will not diagnose or prescribe as it is im-Ah, but after convalescence sets possible to do so by mail. Consult your

Mrs. R. inquires: Does a baby three months old have to wear his woolen your daughter to see this strong and disinfects the room-or makes shirts and bands with his nightdress

> No, particularly not in warm weath-Even in the daytime the band

H. N. N. asks: What causes a single tooth to become loose, al-

Chronic inflammation of the gums,

HENRY HOWLAND The DIFFICULT

pay to lie And it's easy to be patient when your enemy is strong;

to be trusted when your salary But it's hard to keep your friends in line when things are going wrong.

It's easy to be hopeful when the way ahead is fair And it's easy to be cheerful when the good clothes to wear, But it's hard to keep from lying when a lie or two will pay.

It's easy to be happy when you have no cause to fret; cause to fret;
It's easy to shun doctors when you've neither ache nor cough;
It's easy to be placid when you're keeping out of debt,
But it's hard to sidestep trouble when your salary's cut off,

It's easy to tell others to cheer up when you are glad And it's easy to be fearless when you haven't any foes, But it's hard to keep from feeling that the world is "rotten bad" When you've been an ass and know that every one who knows you knows.

He Knew How.

"How," asked the young man who had just bought the village paper and desired to win prominence as an editor, "can I get the public to become interested in my journal? I know the per, but if nobody takes it, how will any one find out that it is good? Something must be done to attract attention-to cause the people to understand that we are on earth.'

"That'll be easy," said the traveling printer, who had stopped over to assist in putting the patient on its feet. "Just print an item saying that a cer tain preacher in this town will get into trouble if he doesn't cease paying attentions to a certain married member of his flock and cease quick. I'll bet the paper containing that item won't be off the press 40 minutes before there's a copy of it in every house in this town.'

Getting a Man's Measure. "I wonder how I can find out whether he really and truly loves me?" "That's easy. Treat him as you would treat a dog that you didn't care for, and if he keeps on wanting to do things to make you happy it will be a sure sign that he really loves you."

"But what if I should treat him that way and he should quit doing things to make me happy? He might never be able to take an interest in me again." "Well, you'll know then that he is a brute and wholly unworthy of you."

OLD AGE AND ITS CAUSES.

"They say old age is not caused by the lapse of time, but is the result of a microbe." "In a good many cases, I'm afraid, it is the result of straining to make the neighbors envious."

Always Under Suspicion. I never take a glass of wine, I don't indulge in smoking; 'he highball? None of that in mine-My friends, I am not joking wish to also make it clear That I abstain from candy. But if I ever laugh out loud Because of what I'm thinking,

I do not know the taste of beer,

I don't indulge in brandy

Conclude that I've been drinking, Too Much of a Risk. "I have a chance to marry an old man who has lots of money."

"Why don't you?" "He hasn't any bad babits, and comes of a long-lived family."

She Was Misinformed "I hear," said Mrs. Oldenstle, "that they are to have a hygienic wedding." Are they?" replied Mrs. Gottalotte, "I s'posed it was to be at high noon."

By an error in engrossing, a law has been placed on the statute books of Tennessee prohibiting owners of livestock in Lawrence county from "running at large." The mistake "got by" the speaker of the house, the without detection.

The Daily Story

The Man She Married-By F. A. Mitchel.

Copyrighted, 1914, by Associated Literary Bureau.

A number of married ladies were a, luncheon, and the hostess proposed that each give an account of how it came about that she married her busband. In order to set the ball a-rolling, she gave her own experience first. She had met the man she married at a dinner party. They were sitting side by side, and he upset a glass of red wine over a white silk dress she wore for the first time. At the moment of the accident she was recounting an incident, and simply applying her napkin to the saturated spot she went on with her recital as though nothing had happened. The man, who realized that he had ruined the dress and could not with propriety offer to replace it, was so much pleased with ber consideration for his feelings that he finally asked her to marry him.

The next narration was that of a lady who met the man she married at a horse race. At the luncheon hour the hamper containing the refreshments was brought from the boot of the coach in which the party had gone to the races, and one of the gentlemen opening a bottle of champagne shut his eyes when the pop came, and the cork hit the narrator in the face. The man was so distressed at what he had done that to make up for it he married her.

"Come, Mrs. Dorrance," said the hostess after several such romances had been recounted, "give us your experience. I am quite sure the ladies will be pleased to hear it.'

Mrs. Dorrance, being urged by the others, finally consented.

"I was traveling abroad." she began. "on my way from Thun to Paris. Those barbarous people over there refused to check my trunk farther than Berne. On arrival at Berne I tried to find the trunk and failed. A gentleman noticing my distress asked if he could be of service to me, and when I told him what was the matter he went with me to the other end of the station, where we found a man slowly wheeling a truck. On the truck was my trunk. The gentleman who was with me spoke French fluently. I don't know what he said, but he succeeded in getting the trunk to the train a minute before it started."

HE SNATCHED MY LIFE PRESERVER.

"I, too, met my husband while traveling abroad," said one of the ladies, sipping her wine. "Oh, I didn't marry that gentleman,"

Mrs. Dorrance proceeded. "He was going east and I west. I thanked him for the service he had done me and made a rush for the train that was just starting. All the doors were locked, and I very foolishly stepped on to the footboard. In a few moments the train was going so fast that I dare not jump off, and I couldn't get into the compartment. I was clinging to a brass rod intended for persons to help them into the coach. A gentleman in the compartment reached out and tried to drag me inside through the window.

"I was more fleshy then than I am now, and the effort was a failure. I shall never forget the disappointed look on his face when he gave up trying to lift me."

"How lovely!" remarked a lady. "Was be dark or light?" "I was too frightened to notice." "But you did afterward."

"I never saw him again."

"Oh! Go on."

"There are several compartments in those foreign coaches. A gentleman got out through a window at the front end of the car I was on and made his way toward me. I felt a strong arm about my waist-ob, how relieved I felt!--and glancing upward looked into one of the finest, bravest faces I ever saw in a man." "I have heard that Mr. Derrance is very handsome," remarked one of the ladies, sotto voce, to another.

"The gentleman," continued the speaker, "held on to me, encouraging me with a deep, sonorous voice that did not indicate the slightest fear or excitement, and somehow, under his protecting care, I felt perfectly safe. We clung there together till the train had passed over about ten miles, when we reached a station I got into the compartment to which I was clinging, and my preserver returned to his own. I did not see him again till the train reached Dijon, when he handed out a far woman and five children, disappearing with them in the station. He was evidently married."

"How unfortunate," exclaimed several ladies at once.

"Two romances nipped in the bud."

"I pursued my journey to Paris and thence to London, where I attempted to engage passage on the next steamer to sail for New York. Every room was taken, and I must be at home within ten days to attend the wedding of my dearest friend, for whom I was to be bridesmaid. So the day the steamer sailed I went aboard, true ing that some passenger might min reaching the steamer on time or some thing like that, but when I went to the purser after we were off he told me there was not a vacant room, not even a vacant berth in the ship.

"A gentleman was standing at the purser's window waiting till I had got through with my questions and, hearing what I said and seeing my disappointment, raised his hat, not with the flourish of a parvenu, but to the manner born, and with a sympathetic er. pression in his glorious eyes said: "'Will you do me the honor to accept my stateroom? "Of course I told him I wouldn't think of incommoding him and all that, but he insisted, and when the purser told him that one of the officers on the upper deck would, for a consideration, give up his room to him I accepted the sacrifice." "This is going to be delightful," was whispered from one lady to another. "I was seasick and didn't leave my room till one night-there was a dense fog-I lay listening to the whistle repeat 'toot-toot' every few moments I heard a crash and felt the ship ca. reen. I knew at once that there had been a collision and, springing up, put to me." "Ah, he saved you! I have always heard you married a brave man!" "He did no such thing. He snatched my life preserver and ran away with on what I could find, seized a life preserver and ran on deck. One of the first persons I met was the gentleman who had so kindly given up his room

"Oh, dear! How disappointing!" "I made my way to one of the boats. An officer was superintending its loading, keeping the men back and putting in the women and children. The man who had taken my life preserver. crazed with fear, tried to force his way into the boat, and the officer was obliged to threaten to shoot him to keep him away.

"The boat was filled before I could get into it, and I was obliged to seek safety in another direction. There were not boats enough for half those on board, and before I could get a place in one the last had been lowered and pulled away from the ship.

"Oh, that awful night! I looked about for something to float me-for the vessel was rapidly sinking-but could get only a steamer chair. It seemed to me not that the vessel was sinking, but that the water was rising to engulf me. Slowly it came up like a hungry monster stealing upon its prey; then suddenly the bow pitched. the stern rose, and I was engulfed in the cold black ocean.

"When I came up I was still clinging to the steame it would not serve me long, for I was rapidly becoming benumbed with the cold. I was losing consciousness when I felt a hand seize my arm and I was dragged on to an improvised raft. Then I felt a rope being placed around my body and knew that I was being lashed to my support. But there was no one on it with me. Presently I felt a pair of lips pressed against mine. I opened my eyes and saw a man's face. He had flery red hair. That's all I gathered of his appearance-his hair was very red. Then I felt my raft slightly lightened. I knew that a man had pulled me on to the raft, and, since it would not bear two, he had got off into the water. I lost consciousness with the knowledge that he had given his life for mine." "Poor fellow!" remarked the hostess. "The wireless telegraph had called for help, and I was picked up by a boat from a steamer that had come to our rescue. As I was carried on to the deck from the boat who should I see standing with his hands in his pockets looking at me but"-

"Your preserver?" "The red headed man. He saw me and blushed. Coming to me, he said. 'I beg your pardon for what I did.' "'What do you mean?' I asked. "The kiss. I didn't expect to ever see you again." "'I know you didn't. You expected to give your life for mine. Come here.

"He came to me shrinkingly as 2 child expecting a whipping. I threw my arms about his neck and cried with my lips against his."

er having finished, "we don't need to ask who is Mr. Dorrance. It's plain enough." The story teller did not deny the "Ladies," said the hostess, the speak fact, and the party broke up. "That was a very affecting story of Mrs. Dorrance's," said a lady to another.

he had a red head!"

"Very. But what a pity it was that

Aug. 1 in American History.

1801-Jonathan Edwards, distinguish ed metaphysician, died; born 1745. 1818-Maria Mitchell, astronomer, bort in Nantucket, Mass ; died 1889. 1848 Robert T. Lincoln, eldest son et Abraham Lincoln, born in Spring-

1911 - Edwin A. Abbey, decorative artist and illustrator, died in London born 1852

Sec. 4.11

A merest hint of war prices must cause acute distress to the farmers who have sold their wheat,